

Footing Drains and Sump Pumps

- Are footing drains and basement sump pumps connected into the system?

- Footing drains and sump pumps collect clean water from below the foundation in an effort to lower the surrounding water table.
- These clean water sources can overload the system and cause a hydraulic failure